

LANDSCAPE
Development

TREENDALE

Australind, Western Australia

Landscape Development were proudly involved in the construction of stage 7, including earthworks, PVC liver, limestone walls and hydraulic system for the lake. The project included aspects such as stunning rock river beds featuring basalt rock, complimented by dry stone rock walls through out, with stainless steel balustrades to the pedestrian bridges. Covering a vast 5 ha, the landscape featured native plant material with irrigation provided from the specifically built lake.

