

LANDSCAPE Development

IBIS GARDENS

Bussell Hwy
Busselton, Western Australia

Ibis Gardens is a small subdivision in close proximity to Busselton township in the South West Region.

Landscape Development undertook design and construction of a small POS with playground followed by a larger linear park adjacent to a wetland with significant environmental status.

The linear POS incorporated a running trail with fitness equipment installed along the way.

